Selection criteria in the event of limited enrolment:

If the number of applications exceeds the number of available enrolment places, candidates shall be ranked according to:

- grade point average (80%) and
- grade awarded for the thesis (20%).

If the thesis is not required for completion of the study programme, only the grade point average shall be considered (100%).

Transfer criteria:

In accordance with the transfer criteria, candidates may transfer to the 2nd-cycle (master's) study programme in Criminal Justice and Security from study programmes in the field of security services (103), inter-disciplinary programmes and qualifications involving services (108), social sciences, journalism and information (03), business, administration and law (04), Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) (06), welfare (092), or health and welfare not elsewhere classified (099).

Candidates may transfer to the study programme provided they fulfil the following criteria:

- criteria for enrolment in the first year of the 2nd-cycle study programme in Criminal Justice and Security;
- they are transferring from a study programme leading to the acquisition of comparable competences or learning outcomes;
- at least half of the study obligations evaluated according to the ECTS credit system of the previous study programme relating to compulsory courses of the new study programme are recognised.

The transfer shall be addressed by a competent senate committee of the faculty where the candidate intends to continue his studies. In accordance with the Rules on the Recognition of Knowledge and Skills in Study Programmes of the University of Maribor, the candidate shall submit to the faculty by the June 1st:

- an application for the recognition of knowledge and skills at the University of Maribor;
- proof of fulfilled study obligations (exams) including grades and ECTS credits;
- validated course syllabi according to which knowledge was acquired;
- a receipt of payment for the recognition procedure.

When transferring from one study programme to another, fulfilled study obligations that may be recognised fully or partially are identified, taking into account the content, extent, and level of complexity of the new study programme, and study obligations required for completion of the new study programme are laid down.

Mode of study: full-time and part-time

Both study programmes (full-time and part-time) shall be implemented in the event of 15 or more enrolled students.

Number of available enrolment places: The number of available enrolment places is published in tables that represent an integral part of the Call for Application into Postgraduate Study Programmes of the University of Maribor.
